

BOULDER COUNTY BAR NEWSLETTER

JULY/AUGUST 2012

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE BOULDER COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION

BOULDER COUNTY BAR MENTOR/MENTEE PROGRAM is still happening but we have taken a different approach with the help from the Colorado and Denver Bar Associations to enhance our mentoring program that we began in 2009.

The BCBA program will use the suggested curriculum which will include History and Importance of the Legal Profession; Professional Conduct and Civility; Litigation and Transaction Experiences; Law Practice Management; Working with Clients and Public Service. The Boulder program will be tailored to practicing law in Boulder while utilizing the general concepts of the DBA program.

Mentor and Mentee applications are on the BCBA website www.boulder-bar.org. We hope that our new lawyers will step up and contact the bar offices to sign up for the program and be matched with a Boulder lawyer. BCBA members who are available to be a mentor should contact the bar office 303.440.4758.

PROFESSIONISM IN THE PRACTICE OF LAW

By proclamation of Chief Justice Michael L. Bender and Colorado Bar President, David L Masters, October 2012 has been declared Professionalism Month in coloration. The Chief Justice has established a Commission on the Legal Profession to foster among members of the legal profession a commitment to service, excellence, respect, ethics and trustworthiness as well as commitment to the preservation of the Rule of Law.

The Boulder County Bar will present a Professionalism Program on Tuesday, October 16 with speaker Judge Russell Carparelli, Colorado Court of Appeals, representatives from the BCBA Professionalism Committee and Colorado Supreme Court Disciplinary Counsel's office in the Boulder Justice Center Jury Assembly Room. The program will be from noon to 1:30 PM and have 2 free ethics credits for attendees.

BENCH BAR RETREAT
CU LAW SCHOOL 1 - 5 PM
ANNUAL JUDGES' DINNER
AT THE ACADEMY AT 5:30 PM
NOVEMBER 8, 2012

We would like your input for our discussion topics. Suggested agenda items are below for your review. Please send us your ideas as well!

The overall theme is Professionalism: civility/preparedness/advocacy/mentoring, with the breakout sessions allowing bench and bar to exchange thoughts, infused by the theme, along substantive practice lines, spiked with practical do's and don'ts.

1. Procedural Fairness, Professionalism and Mentoring for Young Lawyers
2. County/Criminal Court
3. District/Criminal Court
4. Domestic Relations
5. County Court - FED's PPO's, evictions, small claims, ...
6. Specialty Courts IDC, DUI, DITC, Juvenile Court
7. Final Session - roundtable discussion with judges and magistrates.

Please respond by August 17

OCTOBER 29, 2012
NEW COLORADO COURTS
E-FILING SYSTEM
COMING TO 20TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT
Boulder will be a pilot site for the Colorado
Judicial Branch's new Integrated Colorado Courts E-Filing System ("ICCES"). The new system will replace LexisNexis File & Serve. The pilot is scheduled to begin in Boulder on October 29, 2012
and use of the ICCES system will be mandatory as of that date.

The new system will be implemented statewide on January 1, 2013 and all electronic filings for civil cases in the district, county, and appellate courts of Colorado will be made through the new ICCES program as of that date.

IMPORTANT - ICCES Account Pre-Registration: This registration can be completed now. Law firms and agencies will need to register their organizations and request user accounts for ICCES. Pre-registration is available at <http://www.courts.state.co.us/icces>.

Training: The Judicial Branch will begin ICCES training this August. Trainings will also be announced on the Judicial Branch website. To learn more about training opportunities, visit <http://www.courts.state.co.us/icces>.

Judicial Branch Website: Stay informed about the ICCES transition by visiting the Colorado Judicial Branch's E-Filing website regularly at <http://www.courts.state.co.us/icces>.

Contact Information: E-mail ICCES-Feedback@judicial.state.co.us for any questions about the transition to ICCES.
