

Boulder County Crisis & Community Resources

Boulder Strong Resource Center

603 S. Broadway

The newly established center offers a variety of services, including on-site crisis counseling, therapy dogs, massage and acupuncture and drinks and snacks provided by King Soopers as well as more direct services for victims such as victim advocates, property reclamation and more. Boulder opened the center in partnership with King Soopers.

To access the resource line, call 303-217-0120. It's available from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday.

Boulder County Sheriff's Office Victim Assistance Program - The Boulder County Sheriff's Office Victim Assistance Program is staffed by dedicated and trained volunteer victim advocates. Working in conjunction with Boulder County law enforcement agencies and the Criminal Justice System, victim advocates provide crisis response to victims of violent crime and trauma and survivors of sudden death through on-call and outreach programs. For more information please call (303) 441-3656 or visit the website here.

Boulder County Bar Association – A voluntary membership organization of attorneys and judges practicing in Boulder County. The BCBA is maintaining a running list of pro bono attorneys to help with any legal questions or issues that may arise for victims.

To access the resource list, call 303-440-4758 or fill out the online form at www.boulder-bar.org.

Boulder County District Attorney's Office / The Community Protection Division – The Community Protection Division works to resolve disputes between individual consumers and businesses, investigates complaints and prosecutes cases involving abuse or exploitation of elder and vulnerable members of our community, and engages community members through outreach and education, arming them with tools necessary to protect themselves and to prevent them from becoming victims of crime.

Staff members and volunteers can answer questions, provide assistance, and work to resolve consumer complaints. They are located in the Boulder County Justice Center at 6th and Canyon. To reach their office call 303-441-3700 and ask for the Community Protection Division.

The Colorado Healing Fund - The Colorado Healing Fund has established a donation fund that is accepting monetary donations to support victims and their families affected by the tragedy on Monday, March 22, 2021. For more information or to donate to the fund, please visit the website here.

Crisis Counseling Resources

Colorado Crisis Services (Emergency Mental Health) - Colorado Crisis Services provides in the moment crisis support for those seeking help with mental health, emotional concern, or substance use. Services are free, confidential, and available to anyone in need. You can connect with a crisis counselor or peer support specialist by calling the toll-free crisis line, by text, or in person at one of their Mental Health Partners Center locations listed below.

For emergency assistance with a mental health crisis, please call (844) 493-TALK (8255), or text "TALK" to 38255.

Mental Health Partners-Boulder 24/7 Walk-In Crisis Center

3180 Airport Road
Boulder, CO 80301
844-493-8255 or Text "TALK" to 38255

The Boulder Walk-In Crisis Center is open 24/7. Services include confidential, in-person support, information, and referrals to anyone in need. The center is available to those in need of direct services or those seeking to help engage another person in services.

You may visit Boulder Walk-In Crisis Center's website for additional counseling information at:

<https://www.mhpcolorado.org/crisis/>

Mental Health Partners-Ryan Wellness Center

1000 Alpine Avenue
Boulder, CO 80304
(303) 443-8500

The Ryan Wellness Center offers adult counseling services. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, all appointments are being offered via telehealth, until further notice. This location accepts Medicaid, Medicare, self-pay, and private insurance. Financial advisors can match you with the best payment plan to fit your needs and means.

You may visit Ryan Wellness Center's website for additional counseling information at:

<https://www.mhpcolorado.org/about/locations/boulder/>

Mental Health Partners- Norton Center for Behavioral Medicine

975 North Street
Boulder, CO 80304
(303) 443-8500

The Norton Center for Behavioral Medicine offers adult counseling services. Appointments are being offered via telehealth, and in-person. This location accepts Medicaid, Medicare, self-pay, and private insurance. Financial advisors can match you with the best payment plan to fit your needs and means.

You may visit Norton Center for Behavioral Medicine's website for additional counseling information at:

<https://www.mhpcolorado.org/about/locations/boulder/>

Raimy Psychology Clinic

1905 Colorado Avenue
UCB 345, University of Colorado Muenzinger Psychology Building

Boulder, CO 80309
(303) 492-5177

Website: <https://www.colorado.edu/clinicalpsychology/raimy-clinic>

Raimy Psychology Clinic offers adult counseling services. Services are performed by University of Colorado graduate students in the Clinical Psychology PhD program. Because of the training function of the Clinic, they offer psychological services at substantially reduced fees. For additional information, please call or visit the website.

Colorado Department of Human Services- Office of Behavioral Health - The CDHS Office of Behavioral Health contracts with seventeen community Mental Health Centers for the provision of mental health treatment services to individuals and families who are low income or not covered by insurance throughout Colorado. A list of the community mental health centers can be found on their website here.

Their website also offers a searchable database for information on services for prevention, treatment, recovery, and mental health throughout Colorado. Visit the website here to find a service provider.

The Disaster Distress Helpline

800-985-5990 (24 hours)

Website: <https://www.samhsa.gov/find-help/disaster-distress-helpline>

This helpline, through the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), can provide immediate counseling to anyone who is seeking help.

SAMHSA Behavioral Health Treatment Services Locator

Visit the website here: <https://findtreatment.samhsa.gov/>

This line is available 24 hours/day and 7 days/week. The Behavioral Health Treatment Services Locator provides information and a search tool for behavioral health and substance abuse/addiction services in the United States and U.S. Territories. You can access the free and confidential treatment provider search tool using the link listed above. After completing the search criteria, you can view a list of treatment providers and detailed information about each provider.

You may also call (800) 662-4357 to receive free and confidential information about mental health and substance abuse treatment services in your area.

Online Resources for Parents

<https://www.naeyc.org/resources/topics/coping-stress-and-violence>

The National Association for the Education of Young People has compiled online resources for parents, teachers, and others working with young children about coping with violence and its aftermath and talking to young children about tragedies they learn about in the media.